

EVEREST XXL

Everest is the newest addition to Maurice Kain's range of extra wide drop sheers, boasting an impressive 420cm width, the longest drop fabric currently available on the market. Perfect for double story windows, grand entranceways, and other expansive spaces, Everest delivers the generous length needed for striking, seamless drapery.

Woven in a new construction with a sophisticated poly linen blend, Everest offers a beautifully light, natural aesthetic. With six versatile shades to choose from, it provides a timeless solution for any interior.
